Dear Ms. Schwarz:

Today I received two Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) appeals from you.

The first appeal is OGC FOIA Appeal 13-035. Your appeal is based on not having received a final, substantive response to your December 26, 2012 request for information pertaining to Contract N00024-03-C-2311, for Lockheed Martin Corporation. You submitted your initial request to the Chief of Naval Operations (DNS-36). By email dated January 2, 2013, DNS-36 advised you that it had forwarded your request to the command having cognizance over that particular contract: The Naval Sea Systems Command and provided you with contact information for them. I have contacted NAVSEA and am awaiting their response.

The second appeal is OGC FOIA Appeal 13-036. This appeal is based on not having received a final, substantive response to another request. You state that on November 27, 2012, you requested a copy of information pertaining to Contract N00019-08-C-0028. I have checked with DNS-36 and the activity with cognizance over the requested contract, the Naval Air Systems Command. Neither place has any record of receiving a request from you. Please provide a copy of your original request so that I may determine who might have received it.

Finally, please submit any FOIA appeals to the following address: Office of the General Counsel, Department of the Navy, ATTN: FOIA APPEALS, 1000 Navy Pentagon, Room 5A532, Washington, DC 20350-1000. DNS-36 is not an activity designated to receive FOIA appeals. As such, the statutory processing period does not begin until it is received by a place designated to receive FOIA appeals. If you wish to expedite receipt, you may send an electronic copy of your request to BOTH of the following email addresses: april.christensen@navy.mil and Richard.d.zeigler@navy.mil. It's important that you copy both of us to ensure that if one of us is out, the other one is available to receive it.

If you wish to discuss this matter further, you may email me or call me at 202-685-6949.
